Reduced or simplified Customer Due Diligence (CDD)

Where the risk of money laundering or terrorist financing is lower and where information on the identity of the applicant for business is public information or where adequate checks and controls exist elsewhere then reduced or simplified due diligence measures can be applied. The entities to which this applies are:

- a. A regulated financial service in a reputable jurisdiction provided there are no nominee arrangements;
- b. Public companies listed on the stock exchanges and Recognized, Designated and Approved Stock Exchanges or subsidiaries thereof as per the AML Code;
- c. Government bodies;
- d. A pension or superannuation or alike scheme that provides retirement benefits to employees as per the requirements in the AML Code.

Enhanced CDD measures

Enhanced CDD measures will be applied in all high-risk business relationships, customers and transactions (particularly in case of Politically Exposed Persons (PEPs), non-face to face business relationship and NCCTs and non-equivalent jurisdictions involved)

Execution of our Client Agreement and Risk Disclosure Agreement

In addition, all applicants are also required to fill in and sign our Client Agreement, Terms of Services, Risk Disclosure Agreement, Privacy Disclosure and Liquidity Guidelines.

All new customers' names will be compared to the list provided by our screening service provider. If a customer's name appears on the list or any of the suspected fraud alerts are triggered, the application will be rejected.

SUSPICIOUS TRANSACTIONS

Suspicious transactions are those that have no business or apparent lawful purpose, are unusual for the customer, or lack any reasonable explanation.

DEPOSIT AND WITHDRAWAL

We do not accept 3rd party funds. Also, incoming and outgoing bank wires must be to the same banking institution having the customer's name on the account. Customers should login to CXM user portal to proceed deposit and withdrawal. Our Customer Service Department will verify the information and approve the transaction.

The Company's anti-money laundering procedures mandate that individuals and entities that refuse to provide information verifying their identities, will not be permitted to open accounts at CXM.

All new accounts will be subject to the stringent approval process by "COMPLIANCE". "COMPLIANCE" will ensure that the new account form is complete. "COMPLIANCE" will review all new accounts for financial credit worthiness and trading suitability purposes. However, he will also review for anti-money laundering purposes. "COMPLIANCE" will check to ensure that identifying information is listed for all individuals named on the new account form and that none of the individuals named on the outsourced screening service list or any other watch lists are opened at the Company.

The stated purpose of customers in placing funds with us is set forth in our customer agreement, to wit: speculation in foreign currencies. Any conduct or account activity that is inconsistent with trading foreign currencies with a goal of profiting thereby, must be considered suspicious activity and reported immediately to "COMPLIANCE" who will evaluate the situation and determine whether to take further action consistent with these procedures.

We thank you for your cooperation in helping us make CXM a safer place to trade.

When you check the box, it represents that you have read and agreed the policy.
